

2020 Rainforest Festival Schedule updated 9.1.20

Registration for classes/Musical Houses map begins at noon on September 2 and runs through noon, September 9. Registration is online: psglib.org or at the Public Library 772-3349. Classes are free, but due to related delivery/pick-up of materials/location, participants must be residents of Petersburg, Alaska.

The Keynote Address and Brown Bags are open to all. Links will be posted the week of the festival.

The Virtual Reading with the Rainforest Writers is free. Registration required to get the attendance link.

Thursday, September 10

Morning Family Event: "Skog Spirit" challenge posted or pick-up instruction sheet at the Public Library and Alaska Sea Grant Marine Advisory Office

Noon Zoom Brown Bag: "Forest Insects in SE Alaska" with Elizabeth Graham, Entomologist, USDA Forest Service, State and Private Forestry

Friday, September 11

Morning

- Ephemeral Outdoor Art show locations announced
- New! Raven Trail Interpretive Map available-artwork by Lisa Schramek Adams available at the Public Library and Alaska Sea Grant Marine Advisory Office
- Totally Nautical Ocean Scavenger hunt begins
Hunt list available at the Public Library and Alaska Sea Grant Marine Advisory Office
New prizes hidden Friday - Sunday

7:00pm Keynote Zoom talk: "The mystery and wonder of southeast Alaskan peatlands" with Dave D'Amore, Research Soil Scientist
PNW Juneau Land and Water Management

Saturday, September 12

All-day Adult art class: Studio Visit & Custom Enamel Earrings with Ashley Lohr
Virtually select shape(s), colors and discuss a jewelry design for either a pair of earrings or a pendant.
5 people, sign-up for 1 hour time slots

9:00 am Rainforest Writers Workshop #1, led by Orin Pierson
A 3-hour creative writing workshop for writers of all experience levels
limit 7, advance sign-up required

12:00 pm Zoom Brown Bag: "Lichen" 10-minute film by Lisa Jackson and
Q&A with Karen Dillman

Check out: What Lichens Can Teach Us!

- 1:00 pm Kids' Event: Virtual Berry Cook-along
 Make a simple no-bake fruit tart and some berry drinks. After registration families will be emailed a recipe and supply list.
 Class limit 7 (family or friend groups are considered 1) - sign-up required
- 2:00 pm Rainforest Writers Workshop #2, led by Orin Pierson
 A 3-hour creative writing workshop for writers of all experience levels
 limit 7 advance sign-up required
- 6:00 pm Musical Houses - local porch music coordinated by the Petersburg Arts Council
 Limit 20 pods, registration required to get map and starting location.

Sunday, September 13

- All day Adult art class: Studio Visit & Custom Enamel Earrings with Ashley Lohr
 Virtually select shape(s), colors and discuss a jewelry design for either a pair of earrings or a pendant.
 5 people, sign-up for 1 hour time slots
- 1 - 3 pm Adult Event: Wild Foods & Wellnes, with nutritionist Kelly Zweifel and Christina Sargent. Get information about the immune boosting vitamins of wild food and how to prepare sauces, syrups, and shrubs using wild berries, spruce tips, seaweed, and mushrooms.
 Class limit 10, pre-register to get cooking kit - some item must be foraged or purchased

- 7:00 pm Virtual reading with Rainforest Writers
 Join Rainforest Writers for a virtual reading. A great opportunity for literary artists throughout the community to share their writings with an audience and for attendees to hear fresh work from local voices.

To attend the reading, please register to receive link

For writers contact Orin by the evening of Sept. 13 to be added to the line up
 - www.rainforestwriters.org

Rainforest Run 10K & Half Marathon:

Virtual: September 12-18 – submit a screenshot of an app with proof of time by 9/18

In- Person: September 19 – check-in/register at Sandy Beach

Start: Walkers @ 8am Runners @ 9am

Registration: Free or $20 with a T-shirt. Preregister www.pmcak.org. For more info contact Julie.